- The City of Ottawa has lifted the State of Emergency today
- There continues to be an increased police presence in the downtown core. They will remain in place leading up to and throughout the weekend
- The City of Ottawa Roads Department continues to inspect and work on the roads bounded by Laurier, Bronson, the Rideau Canal and the Ottawa River where the heavy trucks were parked and there were encampments. They will continue to remove the infrastructure that was put in place, as well as to remove snow and ice, and make repairs to the roads.
- At this time, the road conditions are considered unsafe and are restricted to local traffic only. Pedestrian traffic is not restricted throughout the downtown core
- There were a few protesters observed downtown during the day but there was no significant protest activity
- For your continued situational awareness, the protest at the Russian Embassy consisted of approx. 20 protesters. It was peaceful and the participants indicated they plan to return all weekend.
- The current status of the interprovincial bridges is as follows:
 - Alexandra Bridge is open
 - Champlain Bridge is open
 - Chaudière Crossing is open
 - Macdonald-Cartier Bridge is open
 - Portage Bridge is open but southbound is reduced to 1 lane
- Ottawa Police Service news releases and media availabilities are available from the following sites:

Good morning. Here is the first update on the convoy demonstration for February 24th. Updates will come periodically throughout the day.

A friendly reminder that information contained in these emails is restricted to the Intersect partner agencies at this level. Please do not forward this information.

- Yesterday evening there were a few pockets of protesters and vehicles observed in the area of Wellington, Queen, and Laurier

- The area of Bronson to the Rideau Canal and Wellington to Laurier continues to be cleared of infrastructure, cleaned and de-iced by the City of Ottawa Roads Department
- Officers posted at those observation points will be advising that the roads are unsafe and open to local traffic only at this time
- Pedestrian traffic will not be restricted
- Police resources continue to monitor the protest vehicles staging within and outside of the City of Ottawa limits, as well as any potential protests and counter protests planned within the City
- All interprovincial bridges are open
